The Basics

Getting Ashore

Ships dock in Charlotte Amalie, the capital of the US Virgin Islands.

Fast Fact

St. Thomas is the 2nd-largest and most populated of the US Virgin Islands.

Port Shopping

US residents enjoy a $1,600 duty-free allowance here—twice that of other islands. Check out downtown, Havensight Mall, and Crown Bay Center.

STATS

CURRENCY US dollar (USD)

FUN FACT Of the 5 National Historic Landmarks in the US Virgin Islands, 3 are located on St. Thomas.

The Shopping Mecca

THE LIVELIEST OF THE US VIRGIN ISLANDS. St. Thomas is 32 square miles packed with near-endless things to see, do, and explore. White-sand beaches, world-class shopping, calm aquamarine waters, even more shopping, green mountain peaks, historic sites, and...did you hear about the shopping?

The island boasts duty-free, tax-free shopping for everything from gemstones and jewelry to crystal and china to linens and fragrances, with prices up to 60 percent less than retail prices on the US mainland. With so many shopping opportunities, you may want to pick up extra luggage to tote your new treasures back home with you.

IT'S JUST A SHORT TAXI RIDE from the cruise terminal to Charlotte Amalie's historic waterfront district. The heart of the retail paradise is Main Street, sometimes referred to by its former name: Dronningens Gade. The small cobblestoned alleys that connect the waterfront with Main Street are lined with former pirate warehouses, now filled to the brim with imported modern luxuries. Many of the store exteriors still resemble old warehouses, but take a look inside to find deals on some of the world's best luxury-brand watches, jewelry, leather, cosmetics, electronics, and more.
