Travel Requirements and Important Information

Travel Documentation Requirements

➤ U.S. Citizens are strongly recommended to travel with a passport. Passports must be valid for at least six (6) months beyond completion of travel. Traveling with a passport will enable guests who need to fly to or from the U.S. unexpectedly during their cruise to do so without significant delays and complications.

To board without a passport, passengers must provide proof of U.S. citizenship.

- Adult passengers 16 years and older need a valid government-issued photo identification AND a U.S. state-issued original or certified copy of their birth certificate (hospital certificates are not acceptable), Consular Report of Birth Abroad or Certificate of Naturalization.
- Children under the age of 16 may board with a U.S. state-issued original or certified copy of their birth certificate (hospital certificates are not acceptable), Consular Report of Birth Abroad or Certificate of Naturalization.
- Any passenger that has different last names on their photo identification and birth certificate must also bring an original or certified copy of a marriage license and/or divorce papers to legally explain the difference between the two names.
- Puerto Rican passengers using a birth certificate as proof of U.S. citizenship must provide a certified copy issued on or after July 1, 2010.
- Photocopies of required documentation are not acceptable.

➤ Legal Permanent Residents of the U.S. (Non-Citizens) must have a valid passport (valid for at least six months beyond completion of travel) from their country of citizenship and a valid Alien Registration Card (Green Card) to enter or re-enter the U.S.

➤ Non-U.S. Citizens must travel with a valid passport (valid for at least six months beyond completion of travel) and verify visa and inoculation requirements with the embassy, consulate or immigration office of all countries in their itinerary, including U.S. ports. For itineraries with multiple entries into a country, such as a cruise that begins and ends in a U.S. port, a multiple-entry visa may be required.

To connect with an embassy or consulate, click here. Choose your country of citizenship from the list, then select each country on your itinerary for embassy contact information.

Important Notices

- Zika Virus: The CDC has issued a travel alert regarding the Zika virus for certain countries, which are included in your cruise itinerary. Additional information can be found under the Travelers Health section of the CDC website at <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <http://www.cdc.gov/zika>.
- Air Travel: Passports are required for all air travel that begins or ends outside of the U.S., even if passports are not required for the cruise. Photocopies of required documentation are not acceptable.
- Denied Boarding: Passengers will be denied boarding for failure to meet these requirements and no refund will be issued.

Age Requirements

- Royal Caribbean requires at least one person in each cabin to be 21 or older. Ages of guests will be verified at embarkation. Any guests determined to be in violation of this policy will be denied boarding and no refund will be issued.

Cruise Departure Guidelines

- Royal Caribbean requires passengers to be onboard the ship at least 1 hour prior to departure. Vacations To Go strongly recommends that you arrive at the pier at least 2 hours before the scheduled departure of your cruise so you will have ample time to check-in and board.

Cancellation Penalties and Additional Information

Cancellation and Change Penalties

- Penalties may apply if you cancel or make changes to your booking such as names, dates, etc. Penalties can be up to 100% of the amount paid, and deposits are usually non-refundable. For additional information on cancellation and refund policies, contact your cruise counselor.

Tipping Guidelines

- Royal Caribbean will automatically add $14.50 per day, per guest ($17.50 per day, per guest for suites) to your onboard account. These amounts can be adjusted onboard. A 18% tip is added to all beverage orders.

Ship Amenities

Terms and Conditions

Vacations To Go (VTG) is a bonded, fully accredited travel agency in operation since 1984. We are one of the largest retail travel companies in the United States and enjoy a stellar reputation within the industry and among our millions of satisfied customers.

This confirmation constitutes your acknowledgement that you have read, and agree to, the terms and conditions of use presented herein. This confirmation contains the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any and all prior confirmations or understandings between the parties on all subjects in any way related to the transaction or occurrence described in this confirmation.

No oral understandings, statements, promises or inducements contrary to or inconsistent with the terms of this confirmation exist. This confirmation is not subject to any modification, waiver, or addition that is made orally. This confirmation is subject to modification, waiver or addition only by means of a new confirmation that will be emailed to the passenger of record within 72 hours of any agreed upon change.

We adhere to the highest standards of customer service and make every effort to represent only the finest and most dependable travel companies worldwide. However, Vacations To Go (VTG) acts only as agent for cruise lines, airlines, tour operators, rental car companies, hotels, motels, resorts, charter airlines, railroad companies, ground transportation companies, and other travel-related companies, and is not responsible for acts or omissions of these third party providers. VTG is not responsible for third party failure to perform, breach of contract, or any action or inaction, intentional or negligent, which results in any loss, injury, delay or damage to you or your property or to anyone traveling with you, or to the property of that party. VTG cannot and does not guarantee third party provider reservations, timeliness, employee conduct, or the performance of scheduled flights, cruises or tours, or the availability of airline seats, hotel rooms or rental cars. Most third party providers reserve the right to alter their terms and conditions at any time, and VTG has no control whatsoever over such alterations. Airlines may add a fuel surcharge or other fee after an air ticket has been booked but prior to final payment. Once final payment for an air ticket has been made, only government-imposed taxes or fees may be added. Guests acknowledge that upon receipt of fare by third party provider, provider accepts the passenger subject to the terms of the provider contract.

Each cruise line and all travel providers will list their own terms and conditions of use on their individual websites, brochures or passenger ticket contracts. To view the terms and conditions for Royal Caribbean, please click here.

You acknowledge and agree that VTG's liability to you for damages incurred by you or anyone else from loss or damage to property or from bodily injury or death or otherwise is limited to the gross amount paid by you to VTG, and that VTG shall not be liable to you for any special, consequential and/or punitive damages resulting from either VTG's or a third-party's negligence, gross negligence, breach of contract, fraud, or any other cause whatsoever. You also agree to waive any claims for damages which you otherwise might be entitled to assert against VTG for damage to or loss of property or for death or bodily injury when the damages are covered by insurance, and further agree that no insurance company or any other third party shall ever become entitled to assert any claim you have against VTG, by subrogation, assignment, or otherwise.

This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the state of Texas, and you agree to submit to the exclusive venue and jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in Harris County, Texas, in all contingencies and disputes.

All customers are advised to pay by credit card, strictly for their own protection, in the event of default of third party providers. Customers paying by check, cash or money order are hereby advised that VTG accepts no financial responsibility in the event of the default of third party providers.

To ensure the quality of the service we provide, all calls to and from Vacations To Go may be monitored and will be recorded.

Thank you! We sincerely appreciate your business, and hope to be of service for many years to come!
